

Hearing Loss Increases a Child's Risk of Balance Problems

70% of children with permanent hearing loss have problems with their balance.

Signs of a problem:

Delayed motor development

Frequent falls

Learning difficulties

Difficulty with balance-related activities

Audiologists are health professionals who provide individualized care to people of all ages with hearing and balance issues.

Speech-Language &
Audiology Canada
Communicating care